MOB SCENE POSSIBLE AT U GOLF COURSE
DURING STATE PREP CROSS COUNTRY MEET

MISSOULA--

Duffers won't have air to breathe this Saturday morning at the University of Montana golf course.

Two hundred and thirty-one high school distance runners, including several who finished in the top ten individually last year at Billings, will be on hand to compete in the annual Montana State High School Cross Country Meet beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Last year, Classes B and C were combined into B, and Classes AA and A were combined into A, but this year, the four classes will run separate races.

Returning from the top ten in Class B (B and C) competition last year will be Jarvis and Luther Yellow Robe of Busby (10th and 8th respectively), Jim Styler of Seeley-Swan (7th) and Al Markuson of Shelby (5th).

Top ten returnees in Class A (AA and A) include individual winner John Hewitt of Missoula Hellgate, Dan Margrave of Billings Senior (3rd) and Don Blankenship of Billings Senior (6th).

Last year's Class B winner, Wade Jacobsen of Simms, is now a freshman cross country standout at the University of Montana.

Montana Coach Harley Lewis, chairman for the event this year, reported there will be 83 runners in Class C from 15 schools; 27 runners in Class B from six schools; 59 runners in Class A from nine schools, and 62 runners in Class AA from nine schools.

Starting times for the class races are: Class C, 9:30; Class B, 10 a.m.; Class A, 10:30, and Class AA, 11 a.m.

Following high school competition, the University cross country team, undefeated in dual meet competition, will meet Eastern Washington State College at 11:30 a.m.

UM LAW SCHOOL GRANTED $2,000 BY S & H LECTURES

The University of Montana School of Law has been awarded $2,000 by the Sperry and Hutchinson Foundation Lectureship Program to finance a lecture series, according to Robert Sullivan, dean of the law school.

Dean Sullivan said the lecture series will be entitled "The Adaptation of Legal Forms to Meet the Needs of a Changing Society." All lectures "Should be of interest to people interested in Montana and interested in modernizing Montana," Dean Sullivan said.

Each lecture set will consist of a pre-lecture panel of Montanans who will relate the lecture topic to Montana and a main lecture given by an out-of-state expert.

The first topic, "Constitutional Revision-The Organization and Implementation of a Plan of Constitutional Revision," will be presented Nov. 16 on the UM campus. The panel will be at 3:15 p.m. and the lecture at 8:00 p.m. in room 304 of the Journalism Building.

The guest lecturer is William Pierce, director of the legislative reference bureau, University of Michigan law school and president of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. He was active in the recent revision of the Michigan constitution.

The Montanans discussing constitutional revision in Montana are Dr. David Mason, Dixon professor of law, UM law school; Dr. Ellis Waldron, professor of political science, UM; the Hon. Jean A. Turnage, State Senator and Senate Minority Leader from Lake County and chairman of the legislative council committee on constitutional revision.

Future topics will be "Agreements Between Government Entities-A Solution to Interstate Needs," on Feb. 15, 1968; "The Ombudsman," Mar. 8; and "The Proposed Consumer Credit Code," April 18.

Dean Sullivan emphasized that all lectures are free of charge and open to the public.
